

Hessisches Staatsarchiv Marburg, Wilhelmshöher Kriegskarten 6/20.

Economic Functions of Urban Spaces from the Middle Ages to the Present

Conference of the International Commission for the History of Towns and HAS „Lendület” Medieval Hungarian Economic History Research Group
 Budapest, 18–20 September 2019

Wednesday, 18 September

Workshop of the Atlas Working Group
 CEU, 1051 Budapest, Nádor u. 15. 101, Quantum Room (meeting) and Room 102 (presentation of recently published atlases)

12.00 Arrival and opening of the presentation of recently published atlases

12.30–13.30 Buffet lunch

13.30 Introduction and welcome, Keith Lilley (Queen's University, Belfast) and Katalin Szende (CEU)

13.45 Ferdinand Opll (Universität Wien/Perchtoldsdorf) Farewell as Convenor – inauguration of Daniel Stracke

14.00 Anngret Simms (University College Dublin), Fifty years of progress – the formative years of the HTAs

14.30 Discussion and questions. Comments and chairing: József Laszlovszky (CEU)

14.45 The next fifty years – the HTAs in a digital world, Introduced and led by Daniel Stracke (Institut für vergleichende Städtegeschichte, Münster), with contributions by Rafal Eysymontt (University of Wrocław), Sarah Gearty (Royal Irish Academy, Dublin), Agnieszka Piłarska and Radosław Golba (Nicolaus Copernicus University, Toruń), Marek Słoń, Grzegorz Myrda, Katarzyna Słomska (Instytut Historii PAN, Warsaw), Magdolna Szilágyi (Research Centre for the Humanities), Michel Pauly (Université du Luxembourg), Marco Orlandi and Rosa Smurra (Università di Bologna, Centro Gina Fasoli)

16.15 Discussion and questions. Comments and chairing: Victor Lagutov (CEU)

16.30 Coffee pause and inspection of recently published HTAs

17.00 AWG Business meeting. Chair: Keith Lilley

18.00 Topography from above: visit to CEU Rooftop lounge and reception

18.30 Meeting of the Board (N 15, 102)

co-organizers

Katalin Szende – Central European University, Department of Medieval Studies (szendek@ceu.edu)

Erika Szívós – Eötvös Loránd University, Faculty of Humanities, Department of Economic and Social History (szivos.erika@btk.elte.hu)

Boglárka Weisz – Research Centre for the Humanities, Hungarian Academy of Sciences „Lendület” Medieval Hungarian Economic History Research Group (weisz.boglarka@mta.btk.hu)

assistant organizer

István Kádas – Hungarian Academy of Sciences „Lendület” Medieval Hungarian Economic History Research Group (kadas.istvan@mta.btk.hu)

Thursday, 19 September

Budapest History Museum, Castle Museum
 1014 Budapest, Szent György tér 2.
 Royal Palace „E” building

9.00–9.30 Greetings: Antal Molnár, HAS Research Centre for the Humanities, Institute of History; András Végh, Budapest History Museum, Castle Museum

Introduction: Katalin Szende, Erika Szívós, Boglárka Weisz

9.30–11.00 Session 1

Chair: András Végh, Budapest History Museum, Castle Museum and Péter Pázmány Catholic University

Rosa Smurra, Seats of Power and Marketplaces in Medieval Italian Towns

Dan Dumitru Iacob, Trade and Sociability in the Markets and Fairs in Romanian Principalities in the 18th–19th Centuries

11.00–11.30 Coffee break

11.30–13.00 Session 2

Chair: Veronika Novák, Eötvös Loránd University, Faculty of Humanities

Olga Kozubaska-Andrusiv, Markets in Ruthenian Towns: Legal and Spatial Perspectives in the Middle Ages and the Early Modern period

Renáta Skorka, The Nuns and the Craftsmen: Urbanization and the Settings of Female Religious Orders in Towns of Medieval Hungary

13.00–14.00 Lunch break

14.00–15.00 Guided visit of the exhibition of the Budapest History Museum

15.00–16.30 Session 3

Chair: István Draskóczy, Eötvös Loránd University, Faculty of Humanities, Hungarian Academy of Sciences „Lendület” Medieval Hungarian Economic History Research Group

Maximo Diago Hernando, The Influence of the Wool Export Trade on the Urban Network and Landscapes in the Crown of Castile from the Fifteenth Century to the Early Nineteenth Century

Werner Freitag, Herausforderung Textilindustrie: Urbanität und Urbanisierung in Dörfern und Kleinstädten im westlichen Westfalen am Ende des 19. Jahrhunderts

16.30–17.00 Coffee break

17.00–18.30 Session 4

Chair: Balázs Nagy, Eötvös Loránd University, Faculty of Humanities and Central European University, Department of Medieval Studies

Mária Pakucs, Trade Routes and Commercial Networks in South-Eastern Europe

Finn-Einar Eliassen, Timber Trade, Townscapes and Urban Networks in Early Modern Norway and Northern Europe

Friday, 20 September

Research Centre for the Humanities, Hungarian Academy of Sciences
 1097 Budapest Tóth Kálmán utca 4.

9.00 – 10.00 General assembly of CIHV

10.00–11.30 Session 5

Chair: Gábor Gyáni, HAS Research Centre for the Humanities, Institute of History

Michael Potterton, Some Archaeological Evidence for International Trade in Irish Towns in the Middle Ages

Gergely Baics, The Spatial Articulation of Commerce and Trade in Mid-nineteenth Century New York City: From Central Business District, to Retail Streets, and Neighbourhood Shops

11.30 – 12.00 Coffee break

12.00–13.30 Session 6

Chair: Judit Majorossy, University of Vienna, Faculty of Historical and Cultural Studies, Institute of Austrian Historical Research

Pavel Lukin, The Marketplace (Torg) in Medieval Novgorod as a Space of Commerce and Action

Peter Eigner, Der Verlust an Urbanität und das drohende Ende des Wiener „Grätzels“. Der Vormarsch von Selbstbedienung, Supermarkt und Shopping Cities versus „Greißler- und Wirtshaussterben“

13.30–14.30 Lunch break

14.30–16.00 Session 7

Chair: István Tringli, HAS Research Centre for the Humanities, Institute of History and University of Miskolc

Franz Irsigler, Papierproduktionslandschaften und die Zentren des Buchdrucks in Italien und in Mitteleuropa/Westeuropa im 14. bis 16. Jahrhundert

Judit Klement, Steam Milling Industry in an Urban Space, Budapest 1841–2008

16.00–18.30 City Walk: Industrial and Commercial Heritage of Budapest, Guided by Judit Klement and Erika Szívós.

19.00 Closing reception

